Thanks Marcella. I knew when you said it was the chairman of the SJ historical society that it was Bev Rich. Cynthia Peterson and I met with Bev and she is a very charming person. I just wondered if Steve Fearn was present. I understand that he is on the historical board and he is also one of the co-coordinators of ARSG.

Paula- I don't have an attendees list, but Steve Fearn was not a speaker. The speaker for the historic preservation and tourism talk was Beverly Rich, Chairman of the San Juan County Historical Society and the County Treasurer.

Hope that helps.

Thank you Marcella for forwarding this. Question for you – if you know. Was a man by the name of Steve Fearn (sp?) present? Just wondering.

All - Please forward to anyone who has worked/is working at Silverton.

I attended the Friends of Mineralogy-sponsored San Juan Mineral Symposium this past weekend. One of the talks was given by the head of the San Juan County Historical Society. Her talk discussed why and how they had moved to a heritage-based recreation economy and the specifics of some of the historic preservation projects. EPA was mentioned very favorably as a partner and sometimes key partner in achieving some of their successes.

Thought you'd all like to know.
